Pre-class Questions: Sections 4.6

- 1. In examples 1.4, why do we need to use two different integrals to find the area?
- 2. In example 1.5 we calculate the same area as in example 1.4 but manage to do it with just one integral. How is this done?
- 3. What questions do you have about using integrals to compute the area between curves?